

——区城市管理局2024年亮点工作回眸

A group of approximately 15 people are practicing yoga in a large, open grassy area of a park. They are arranged in a loose circle, each on their own mat. Most are in a similar pose, with one leg extended back and arms reaching upwards. The park features paved paths, trees, and a colorful children's play structure in the background. The scene is captured from a high angle, looking down on the group.
